

MULTI-FAITH PRISON CHAPLAINCY

Day of Learning & Sharing

Saturday, April 13, 2019, 10 am to 4 pm

Emmanuel College, 75 Queen's Park Cres. East, Toronto

The Role of Multi-Faith Chaplaincy in the Rehabilitation of Inmates and their Re-integration in the Community

Panel Discussion (10:15 am to 11:15 am)

Chair: Roshi Taigen Henderson, Abbot, Toronto Zen Centre,
Buddhist Chaplain, Beaver Creek Correctional Facility

Panelists: Capt (Padre) John E. Funelas, Canadian Armed Forces,
Former Full-time Chaplain at Warkworth Institution
Ms. Paula Osmok, Regional Director, John Howard Society of Ontario

Providing Trauma-Informed Care to Inmates and Ex-inmates

Workshop (11:30 am to 1:00 pm)

Facilitators: Ms. Linda Hochstetler, Social Worker & Psychotherapist, MSW, RSW
Roshi Taigen Henderson, Buddhist Prison Chaplain

Spiritual Care in Prison:

What is needed, what works and what doesn't?

Roundtable (2:00 pm to 3:30 pm)

Chair: Orev Reena Katz haKohenet, Multi-Faith Mental Health Chaplain for Bath & Millhaven Regional Treatment Centres, Jewish Chaplain for Beaver Creek, Collins Bay and Joyceville Institutions

**Invited guests speaking at the roundtable will include staff & volunteer prison chaplains and ex-inmates**

Tickets: $30 (includes lunch and refreshments)

For inquiry or ticket purchase:

Email ut.bccs@gmail.com or Call 416-910-4858

<https://utbccs.wordpress.com>

Presented by:

The U of T Buddhist Contemplative Care Society

Sponsored by:

Emmanuel College Student Society

